

Internship Opportunity 2027 in Oslo

Take on impactful projects in a collaborative and entrepreneurial environment

"OPX Partners is building something new in Oslo, and that's what attracted me. I get to work with talented people who challenge and support each other, while taking on responsibility and working with senior clients from day one. It's an environment where I'm constantly learning, growing and genuinely excited about what we're building."

SOLVEIG MILDESTVEDT

Consultant at OPX Partners and former NHH student
