

Procuritas Private Equity Internship

Drive Growth with Us

Fall 2027

The role

- Work with Nordic businesses in an entrepreneurial setting in close cooperation with senior colleagues and top management of the companies we have partnered with
- Identify and analyze new business opportunities
- Hands-on work with Procuritas' portfolio companies, including e.g. M&A, ESG, digital growth
- Full-or part-time position, based in Stockholm
- Start date in August 2027

Procuritas

- Procuritas is a Swedish Private Equity fund, focusing on Nordic companies in the mid-market segment. For 40+ years we have been building close partnerships with entrepreneurs and founders, helping them grow their companies at a pace that often far surpasses their expectations
- We believe in working closely with our partner companies. And even though our financial track-record stands out, nothing is more important than our culture of achieving growth together

You

- MSc or 3rd year BSc
- Genuine interest in business development, entrepreneurship, and investments
- Motivated and independent with analytical and communicative skills
- Previous internship experience within management consulting, corporate finance, private equity or similar is an advantage
- Fluency in English and a Nordic language

Application

- Application deadline: October 11th
- To apply, send your CV, grade transcript, and cover letter to procuritas@talenteye.se
- Please specify your availability (full- or part-time)
- Should you have any questions, feel free to contact the above email address